

THE GLOBE COMPANY

Globes mean the world to us

Your Globe is a treasured possession...

...whether it be in childhood to teach you the countries and cities of the world and later to demonstrate the physical features of our planet earth. Your globe may be a decorative feature that is useful to identify places and events or an enlightening reference that will grace any lounge or library.

Our catalogue offers the widest choice of globe models anywhere in the world. We offer globes that are cartographically accurate from moderate prices to exotic and expensive models.

Frank Lloyd Wright Collection

Frank Lloyd Wright (1867-1959) is an internationally celebrated architect and widely considered to be America's greatest. He amazed the world with his architectural ingenuity and designs. His vision encompassed the buildings and residences he designed as well as their landscaping, art glass, furniture, lighting and floor covering, to create the unified whole.

This new collection presented by Replogle Globes is inspired by Wright's unique and timeless interior home designs and includes a reproduction of the actual globe stand designed by Wright. Each globe is a unique piece of art.

Wright

This globe stand is an authentic reproduction from a drawing found in the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation archives. It is an unidentified concept for one of the Prairie Homes that Wright designed in the early 1900s. The proportions and interpretation of the drawing were calculated based on the scale of other drawings from the same time period. This globe features a square yoke design, with the square theme carried through to the base. The globe ball is fully up-to-date with an antique ocean style.

Barrel Chair

This globe stand is an adaption of one of the most universally recognised furniture designs found in the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation archives. It is a modified version of the famous 'Barrel Chair' originally designed by Frank Lloyd Wright in 1903 and modified for his own personal use. The globe is cradled in a beautifully constructed wooden stand which is open at the front to give full access to the 16" bronze globe ball with up-to-date mapping. This is an outstanding and unique piece of furniture that would grace any home or office.

San Marcos

In 1928, Wright began creating a grand hotel to be built in Chandler, Arizona. It was never constructed due to the stock market crash of 1929, but the building design and the interior renderings contain a variety of interesting furniture and decorative features. This adapted globe stand showcases the 60 degree angled legs and the circular top of a small accent table designed for the San Marcos Hotel. The globe ball has an up-to-date map with antique ocean colouring.

Hexagon

Frank Lloyd Wright's overall concept for his buildings included the integration of the interior furnishings. In 1952, he developed a series of hexagonal metal chairs, tables and other furniture for the H.C. Price Tower in Bartlesville, Oklahoma that coordinated with the geometric shape of the building. Adapted from the hexagonal hassock design, this globe stand exemplifies the three organic elements used by Wright throughout his lifetime. The metal base is triangular, the hexagonal globe support is wood and the globe is circular. Featuring up-to-date mapping in an antique ocean style.

Prestige Globes

Diplomat

(Illuminated)

Search the world over and you will not find a better example of the globemaking art. A handcrafted masterpiece, this extraordinary globe features lavish attention to both form and function. Distinctive details include rich, ten-colour cartography on hand-laid map and a solid brass, hand-engraved meridian. The handcrafted, solid mahogany cradle mounting rubbed to a lustrous walnut-finish further emphasises the Diplomat's uncommon beauty. A comprehensive 80cm diameter globe ball featuring over 20,000 place names ranks the Diplomat as the world's most detailed globe. A perfect blend of aesthetics and function. Available in antique or blue ocean style.
